3. Data we collect

Submission type (short presentation or poster), title and abstract of your contribution, full name, affiliation, email address, main activity, academic and/or professional experience, nationality and gender. We do not store your IP address.

4. Purpose

We use your data to review and select submissions, to prepare the conference programme, and to contact you about your submission and the conference. If your submission is accepted, your name, affiliation, title and abstract will appear in the conference programme. Information about your main activity, academic and/or professional experience, nationality and gender will only be used for documentation and reporting purposes. This information will be used in an aggregated form and will not be linked to your name or identity.

5. Legal basis

Your consent according to Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR. Giving your consent is voluntary. Without it, we cannot process your submission.

6. Recipients and storage location

Your data are accessible only to the organising committee and the scientific committee of ICSILF. They are stored on a LimeSurvey server operated at Goethe University Frankfurt and are not transferred to countries outside the EU.

7. Storage period

Your data will be deleted as soon as they are no longer needed for the purposes stated above, unless statutory retention periods require us to keep them longer.

8. Your rights

You have the right to access your data (Art. 15 GDPR), to have them corrected (Art. 16), erased (Art. 17) or their processing restricted (Art. 18), and to receive them in a portable format (Art. 20). You can withdraw your consent at any time with effect for the future (Art. 7(3)). The withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before it.

To exercise these rights, please contact contact@goethe-leadership.org or dsb@uni-frankfurt.de.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular the Hessian Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (HBDI), Postfach 3163, 65021 Wiesbaden, Germany.
